

Ōtautahi Collaborative Leadership Network

Collaborative Unconference '19

True lies from the field

HUI

SEPT 26

9am - 4pm

MAC FADDENS CENTRE
64 MACFADDENS ROAD
CHRISTCHURCH

$25 includes lunch

This annual event will be an opportunity to explore your own collaborative leadership from a range of perspectives interactive workshops from our colleagues in the University of Canterbury, "Leading Collaborative Partnerships programme" on the following topics;

- ✘ Catalysing collaboration - opportunity vs crisis
- ✘ The Right Channel - involving users in the design
- ✘ No how? Here's how. Know how, Can do.
- ✘ What is the role of today's leaders in deconstructing organisational silos?
- ✘ INSULT: sustaining energy between INtent and reSULT

In the afternoon we will hear from a range of Christchurch projects where co-location is being used intentionally to develop collaborative practice. This is an opportunity to explore their leadership learnings and invite feedback and insights from all participants.

For more information

Email : chris@leadershiplab.co.nz

This hui is hosted by the "Ōtautahi Collaborative leadership network" which is a self-organising professional learning community open to leaders from communities, NGO's, schools, government agencies and funders who are committed to developing their collaborative leadership.

The network hosts hui every 3 months where leaders are stimulated with new ideas and share learnings from their practice with a view to "Learning and creating action together with communities-in-need to contribute to more interconnected and tangible support".

Reserve your place now...

<https://colabhui-sept2019.eventbrite.co.nz>

Reserve your place here